

Utah Mauler Wins From Bill Brennan In Twelfth Round

Terrific Left Smash to Stomach Followed by Right Smash to Jaw Ends Championship Contest; Brennan Proves Worthy Opponent for Dempsey, Showing Class
Galore; Dempsey's End of Gate is $100,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Bill Brennan, who was knocked out in the twelfth round by Jack Dempsey, the heavy-weight champion, in Madison Square garden last night, said today he intended to ask for another match. "I am not satisfied," Dempsey is my superior," he declared.

The challenger, while saying that he had vindicated himself, asserted he was "surprised" when the referee mentioned him in his corner, believing that he had beaten the count in the twelfth.

Dempsey said, "Brennan was tougher than I expected. He stood up longer than I thought. He would not have been hurt at any time, but I found him a hard man to hit properly." Dempsey expects to leave for the Pacific coast tomorrow to remain until late in February, when he will come back to New York to train for his match with Jess Willard on St. Patrick's day.

The match last night broke all records for receipts for an indoor affair in this country, according to unofficial estimates today. The 11,926 seats brought in $209,525.50. This does not take into account the receipts from about 1,000 temporary bleacher seats and 2,000 persons who obtained standing room.

Deducting Dempsey's share of $100,000 and Brennan's guarantee of $25,000 last night, the promoter's estimated profit, after paying taxes and expenses, probably will be about $12,000. The federal tax approximated $21,000, and the state tax $10,500.

ROUND ONE. Dempsey crouched and Brennan landed a right in Jack's left ear. Dempsey smashed him with several short ones to stomach. Brennan worked up in close quarters, but no damage. Dempsey landed a right hook to the heart. Brennan landed left and right to head. Dempsey landed several short punches to stomach. Brennan retreated under fire when Jack smashed him over the heart. Dempsey was shifting continually and leading with his left jab. Jack brought several uppers to Bill's jaw. Brennan upset Jack to the jaw with right. Dempsey crowded him but Bill held him off with a long left jab. The two men were fighting hard at the bell. Dempsey had a slight advantage. Brennan's right eye was slightly out in the mixup. Dempsey's count.

ROUND TWO. Both men went quickly to the center of the ring. Bill went left and right to Jack's head, a clinch followed and several hard punches were exchanged. Coming out of clinch Jack tried a right to head, but fell short. Big Bill was making a fight of it and succeeded in landing two short lefts. Dempsey came back furiously but missed vicious swing for the jaw. Dempsey smashed Brennan several times to head and body. Dempsey was now assuming a fast pace, but Bill tried hard to keep off the running champion. Another clinch followed and Brennan got home one or two to the jaw. Brennan smashed a hard right to Dempsey's jaw and the crowd went wild. Bill followed it up with an uppercut, and as the bell sounded at the end of the round the crowd gave Brennan a mighty cheer, but it was apparent his blow was not hurting the Utah mauler. It was an even round.

ROUND THREE. Brennan took the lead and shot a right to Jack's ribs, the champion soaked Bill with his left. Brennan stayed with the champion and succeeded in driving him to the ropes with two hard smashes to the jaw. Brennan again landed two lefts to Jack's jaw. Dempsey plunged forward, shooting the wicked right to Brennan's heart. Bill landed left to

ROUND EIGHT. Dempsey, as usual, was on the aggressive, but Bill was willing to swap punches. Brennan missed right uppercut and Jack landed two uppercuts to the stomach and a hard left to the jaw and a right near the heart. Brennan not home weakly with a right uppercut. Jack smashed Bill on the jaw with the right-hand wallop, and Bill squarely worked in close and brought up a stinging left punch to the champion's face. Dempsey was crowding Brennan and staggered him with two hard punches to the jaw. Brennan was groggy and tried to hold Jack. Dempsey shook him off with hard lefts and rights to stomach. Jack smashed a hard right to the jaw, but Brennan stayed up under the punishment. Brennan was short with two punches and forced the champion into his own corner. The crowd gave Brennan a great cheer for his clever work. Dempsey's mouth was cut and received special attention from his seconds. The round was slightly in Dempsey's favor.

ROUND NINE. Brennan smashed Dempsey hard with a right to the jaw. Dempsey came back with two lefts to the jaw. Brennan was short on a left lead and suffered a hard punch over the heart from Dempsey. Jack followed Bill around the ring, landing right and left punches. They clinched again and the champion got home some hard wallops. Brennan landed a stiff uppercut on Jack's jaw which shook him. Jack came back with a right and another hard smash to Jack's face and the latter appeared somewhat worried. They came to a clinch, both getting home some good punches before the referee broke them up. Brennan landed a right to Jack's face and followed it up with three left smashes to Jack's head. Dempsey was fighting very wildly at the bell. It was Bill's round.

ROUND TEN. Both men clinched. Dempsey landed right and left to stomach. Bill landed right to Jack's jaw and Jack returned with several short lefts to the face. Jack upset Brennan in a clinch and Bill came back with a right left to Dempsey's face. Dempsey sent home several hard smashes. Brennan staggered Jack with a left punch to the jaw. Jack tried to shift, but Brennan was cautious. Dempsey smashed hard right to chin, followed it with left to jaw, suggesting the "Chicago" Brennan came back with a left punch to Jack's mouth. Both men were tired and bleeding from the mouth. Dempsey continued shooting his left-hand punches to Brennan's midsection in the clinches, while the crowd booed the champion for what it considered foul practices. Both men were fighting hard at the bell.

ROUND ELEVEN. Jack came out and circled Bill. The men clinched. Bill managed to score with right and left to the heart. Jack was trying desperately to land effectively. Bill kept in close and jabbed Jack twice with two rights and lefts. Jack smashed Bill to the jaw and brought his left to Bill's jaw. Brennan upset Jack to the jaw and Jack smashed him with right and left to the stomach. Brennan stabbed Jack with a hard right to the jaw. Jack's punches seemed to have lost their sting. Brennan was back at Jack after every lead. Dempsey tried with a right and left short and Brennan stepped in with two hard smashes, which shook up the champion. Dempsey was bleeding from his ears and mouth and looked a sorry specimen. The round was even.

ROUND TWELVE. Dempsey tried with left and fell short. Brennan also missed a right to the head, but succeeded in getting over a hard right to Jack's head. Dempsey jabbed Brennan twice, but Brennan was right back with two lefts on Dempsey's face. Brennan shook Dempsey with a hard left to the mouth. In the clinch Brennan worked a right uppercut. Dempsey swung a hard right to Brennan coming in. Dempsey landed a hard left jolt to the stomach which followed with a hard right to the jaw. Brennan crumpled to the floor, where he was counted out by Referee Haskop. Brennan was holding his head. Jack is offering him just the proposition I have been looking for, and if he means business there is no reason why we should not get together in the ring.

Nelson has begun upon a systematic training schedule that will put him in first class condition in very short order. In recent months he has been shorted. In his recent bout with Edwards he looked faster and stronger than he ever looked before.

TIGERS ATTACK SAINTS TONIGHT

Basketball Season to Open at Ogden High; Watson Will Referee

The Ogden High school basketball team will officially open the 1921 basketball season in the school auditorium this evening against the fast L. D. S. aggregation of Salt Lake. This contest will open what gives promise of being one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school according to Coach Carl Peterson. "The battle will start at 7:30 o'clock with Malcolm Watson officiating as referee. The Tigers will be represented by the strongest quint that ever wore the Orange and Black colors of the local school and are set to win the contest. With the addition of Knudsen to the local lineup the Tigers have been strengthened to a great extent. Knudsen was all-state center on the Bingham team last season and is one of the best players in this section of the west. The entire Tiger team has been built around the elongated center, and from all indications he will deliver the goods.

Knudsen and Thomas will hold down the forward positions. Both men are fast, accurate and clever basket shooters. Skeen and Boxer will be seen in action in the guard positions. Skeen is rated as one of the best guards in the state and will no doubt show to advantage this evening.

Coach Van Peterson of the Saints is bringing his best team to play tonight against the locals. In Margetta and Peterson he has two men of exceptional ability. The Saints have played three games thus far this season and have won two and lost one. They are out to defeat the locals.

Bleachers at the Ogden High have been completed and accommodations made to take care of 2,000 rooters.

WEBER TO VIE WITH L. D. S.

Local Hoopsters to Meet Salt Lake Five on Desert Gym Floor

The fast Weber Normal college hoopsters will tangle with the L. D. S. five at Salt Lake on the Desert gymnasium floor next Friday evening, according to information received today by Coach Malcolm Watson. Twenty-two Weber players will make the trip to Salt Lake and all will be given a chance to show their regular positions.

This contest will open the season for the locals and from present indications the Blue and White warriors will have a first-class team in harness. In addition, Newman, Haskop and Harry, Coach Watson has four men of exceptional ability. These men are stars of the first order and will no doubt show down regular positions against opponents of the local school.

More than sixty hoopsters have reported for practice at Weber Normal and picking ten men will no doubt be a hard task, according to Coach Watson.

Games are being arranged with teams of the Salt Lake division by the Weber authorities to be played prior to the opening of the league in January. Contests with the East high, West high, Granite and other fives will be played in Salt Lake. The date to show the relative strength of the locals is compared with the teams of the Salt Lake division.

Keenest interest is centered in the Weber-Weber game, which is always the most hotly contested game of the season. This contest will be played some time in February.

Nelson Again After Harbertson Match

(Special Dispatch) PRESTON, Idaho.—When the challenge issued by Jack Harbertson in Salt Lake papers last Saturday was called to the attention of George Nelson, the local wrestler, he made the following statement for publication in the Ogden Standard-Examiner:

"I am willing to accept Jack Harbertson's challenge any time and place and will see that his $1000 dollar ante bet is covered, provided that he will post a forfeit sufficiently large to insure his appearance on the date of the bout. I have had a match or two scheduled with him, but upon every occasion he has backed out just previous to the date when we were to meet. While I will wrestle Harbertson any where, I would prefer to have the match staged in Cache Valley or else in Salt Lake. Jack is offering just the proposition I have been looking for, and if he means business there is no reason why we should not get together in the ring."

GREETINGS, PETE!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin it for you, old top—listen:—

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Pete, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!
